

GRACIOUS OCEANFRONT LIVING

Views of sparkling seas and dramatic sunsets delight the viewer upon entering this elegant oceanfront villa on Maui's premier south shore. Designed to take full advantage of the panoramic ocean and outer island views, this three bedroom, 4,900 square foot villa and two bedroom guest house offers luxurious comfort in a finely crafted residence designed by prominent Maui architect George A. Rixey.

Fine finishes of Honduras mahogany, teak, bamboo, honed limestone and polished granite complement the understated elegance of this classic villa. State-of-the-art technology together with well appointed amenities create a relaxed atmosphere for socializing and gracious entertaining.

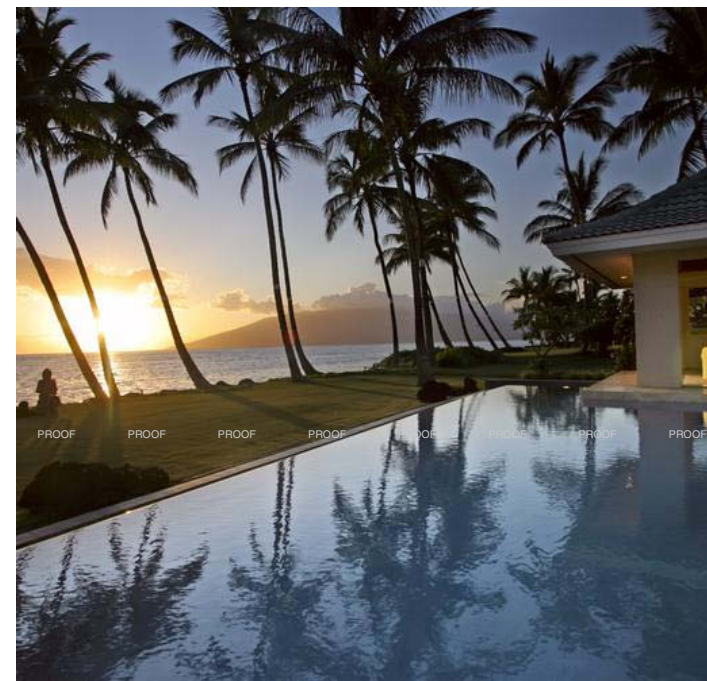

This privately gated residence is within walking distance to shops and restaurants and close proximity to world-class golfing and entertainment.

State-Of-The-Art Technology

Elegant Entertaining

Tranquil Sunsets

LUXURY

The well appointed kitchen offers a spectacular ocean view and is equipped with sophisticated appliances and finely finished cabinetry, creating an efficient workspace with convenient and ample storage.

ELEGANCE

An inviting private courtyard, complete with built-in gas grill and prep sink, provides easy access to the multi-level pool and custom designed bamboo bar. This tranquil setting is ideal for entertaining or personal relaxation.

TRANQUILITY

Perfect for entertaining, spend a relaxing evening poolside while enjoying the company of friends. The infinity edge pool glows with the reflection of the setting sun. At nightfall, rich colors surround, creating a lush environment for intimate gatherings.

This elegant home offers many environmentally friendly features pairing efficiency with luxurious comfort.